

Declaration

I hereby declare, that all of the information I have provided is complete and correct. I am aware that missing or incomplete information, whether deliberate or the result of negligence, may exclude me from the admissions procedure or – if it is not noticed until after I am accepted for the program – may lead to revocation of my admission.

Furthermore, I declare that all statements concerning study periods and degrees are correct and I have not irrevocably failed any exam or lost my right to take examinations in any Master or „Diplom“ program in the field of Neuroscience or any program with a focus on Neuroscience. I confirm that I have written the motivation letter by myself, without any help and that I marked clearly all contents taken from other sources.
